RE: U.S. Patent Application - MEMORIAL CARDS; Serial No.: 10/680,774; Filed: 10/07/03;
Docket No.: 33085

Dear Ms. Colbert:

As requested, this letter accompanies the transferral of the above-referenced file to your possession. By countersigning this letter, you agree with the following provisions.

Hovey Williams LLP will no longer represent you in any matter before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (Patent Office) or any other foreign patent offices, especially with regard to the above-referenced file. We will no longer track your application with the Patent Office, nor remind you of any due dates, including responses to Office Actions and payment of maintenance fees. Unless otherwise requested, we will forward to you at the above address any documents received from the Patent Office relating to your file. However, we suggest filing a Change of Correspondence form with the Patent Office so that we will no longer receive documents from the Patent Office on your file and you may receive them directly. We will further remove you from our billing system, and waive any currently outstanding balance, which to date is $1,573.75. Therefore, per your request, we will no longer represent you with respect to this application.

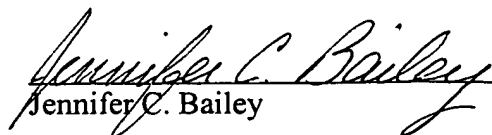

Additionally, please note that we have kept no copies of your file, and the file transferred to you is the true and original file that we have maintained.

Ms. Colbert, thank you for allowing us to be of service to you.

Sincerely,

HOVEY WILLIAMS LLP
